London Borough of Hounslow

ABOUT

Mayor Ranjit Gill is a longstanding Hounslow resident of over 40 years and an experienced local councillor. First elected in May 2018 to represent Chiswick Gunnersbury Ward, he was subsequently elected as Councillor for Osterley and Spring Grove Ward in May 2026.

Throughout his council career, Ranjit has served on several committees, including Audit and Governance, Licensing, Housing and Environment Scrutiny, and the Pension Board, contributing to local governance and community development.

Passionate about environmental conservation, wildlife and community wellbeing, Ranjit actively supports local initiatives, including volunteering with Café Together to assist homeless and vulnerable residents and participating in community clean-up activities. His commitment to public service reflects his dedication to strengthening communities and improving the lives of Hounslow residents.

ABOUT

Councillor Pamila Rodrigues was elected to represent Hounslow Central Ward in May 2026 and serves as Deputy Whip of the Hounslow Labour Group. She also chairs the Housing and Environment Scrutiny Panel and serves as Vice-Chair of the Central Hounslow Area Forum.

Originally from Rachol, Goa, she has been actively involved in strengthening connections between Goan communities in the UK and India. One of her notable achievements was organising the Feast of St Francis Xavier, Patron Saint of Goa, at the UK Parliament for the first time in December 2023, providing a historic platform to celebrate Goan heritage and culture.

Alongside her council responsibilities, she works as a Parliamentary Caseworker at Westminster. She actively supports Goan-owned businesses, promotes investment opportunities in Hounslow and encourages stronger trade and business partnerships between the UK and Goa.
